THE Democrats have never but once since the war nominated an old soldier for President, and then they slew him in their own household.

The Democratic press is always eloquent in describing the era of "prosperity" which followed the enactment of a low revenue Tariff. It is always very careful, says The New Tork Tribune, to exclude such testimony as this, taken from President EUCHANAN'S message of 1857:

The Ledger, with as gentle voice as possible, and without any desire to appear ostentatious, invites The Bulletin's attention to this paragraph of news which seems to have escaped the good editor's eye:

A FOE TO LABOR.

Master Workman Powderly Denounces the Democratic Party as Such.

The Tariff Not a Tax.

THE WORKINGMAN'S SMOKE.

"You see," says the Free-Trade "professor," "every time the working, man wants to have a smoke and buys a box of cigars like this he has to pay exactly $3.09 extra for the benefit of the Tariff barons." Yet this very box of cigars was purchased at retail for $1.50, just $1.59 less than the Free-Trade "professor's" "tax." Strange, isn't it?—From American

THEY may abuse Commissioner PECK and arrest him and lock him in a dungeon if they want to, but his figures go marching on.

THE Supreme Court of Wisconsin wisely and completely demolished Senator VILAS and his Democratic gerrymander. One by one Mr. CLEVELAND'S henchmen bite the dust.

IN 1890 we sold to Great Britain goods and farm products to the amount of $446,000,000, and bought of her only $185,000,000. As long as an individual sells more than he buys he is not likely to become poor. The same rule applies to a community or a Nation.

Or all the countries of the civilized world this is now the most prosperous, and its prosperity is extraordinary in its own history, as all the official statistics of commerce, trade and manufacture bear abundant witness.—New York Sun

(Democrat.)
This is a fact, and it cannot be disputed that this extraordinary prosperity and industrial development is due to the Protective tariff adopted and maintained by the Republican party.

IT would be unfair and incorrect to It would be unfair and incorrect to say that there were no CLEYFLAND Democrats among the 50,000 or 75,000 CURION reterants who have been in attendance at the Grand Army Rocampment this week in Weshington. But it is both fair and correct to say that the CLEYELAND Democrates who were there constituted a mighty small and insignificant fraction of the whole number. And there is hope even that they may yet repent of the matter.

GOVERNOR FLOWER, who says CLEVE-LAND will carry the Empire State by 50,000 majority, and Delegate FLOWER, who signed a protest warning the Chicago Convention that CLEVELAND could not carry the state at all, should get together and balance accounts. When these two blooming FLOWERS meet one of them will have to confess that he has been indulging in an un-wholesome excess of airy persidage or something considerably worse.

A Howling Mob Surrounds the Queen the Turf-Grand Ovation Tendered Mare and Driver-The Trot Took Place at Terre Haute, Ind.

Tarre Haute, Ind., Sept. 29.—Nancy Hanks smashed all the world's records Wednesday, kite and otherwise, by trot-ting a mile on the Terre Haute regula-tion track in the marrelous time of 29.4, in the presence of one of the largest crowds ever seen at the track—crowds that came in on trains from all sections of Indiana and the eastern part of Il-linois.

can have any thing in the town, even the courthouse. Every body sings the praises of the wonderful little mare. Nancy went at the first effort, and came down to the start like the whirl-hand of A. Doble. Around the track she flew as she had never done before. Everybody in the wast grand stand seemed to believe that this was the trial of all trials, and when the mare came in under the wire lasted fully ten munter. It is simply indescribable. Horse men embraced each other in the exuberance of their joy. Men jumped over the railing on to the track, and in the twinking of an eye the horse and driver were surrounded by a yelling, frantic, mad mob. In the control of the control
